

STEFFI PACSON

BIO

Steffi Pacson is a Belgian-based music artist originally from Long Island, New York.

Steffi is a polyvalent pop music artist and entrepreneur who wishes to capture and release emotional energy through performance and share the message of empowerment and strength through her artistic brand and business.

She is a singer-songwriter, producer, pianist, and audio engineer, and a seasoned contestant in The Voice Belgium Season 5. While living in New York, she was a former member of the Nashville Songwriters Association (NSAI), the New York Songwriters Circle (NYSAI), and the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers (ASCAP). Steffi encapsulates empowerment in her lyrics and composes catchy pop melodies. Her dynamic and powerful vocals allow for a wide range of emotional expression that expands to multiple genres of music. As a classically trained pianist and a graduate of SAE, the school of audio engineering in New York, Steffi is able to have multiple perspectives in the creative process. Her artistic brand is the lovechild of Christina Aguilera, One Republic, and Imagine Dragons with a rock performance flare.

In addition to being a leader in her artistic brand, she is an entrepreneur at Pacson Music Studios and Pacson Events Productions. She recently opened up her own music studio in Etterbeek as a vocal and piano coach. She is also an artist coach geared towards studio recording and performance energy.

As a well-rounded pop music artist and female business owner, Steffi hopes to inspire and share the energy of empowerment and determination.
